About

As a highly skilled Creative Designer, I specialize in concept development, branding, packaging design, print and digital media, brand positioning, and strategic marketing. With over 12 years of experience, I have successfully overseen individual projects and brand development, consistently delivering innovative campaigns and ideas.

I possess a strong creative spark, sophisticated design abilities, and excellent communication skills. I am known for my collaborative approach, working effectively as a team member while also demonstrating self-motivation. My passion lies in not only developing big ideas but also bringing them to life across various touch-points and mediums. I am adept at presenting and selling concepts internally and to clients, ensuring they align with client needs and business goals.

From social media and digital content to retail programs and traditional media, I excel in creating compelling experiences that leave a lasting impact. Whether it's through stunning visual branding, engaging social media campaigns, immersive digital content, or effective traditional marketing strategies, I consistently deliver results that resonate with audiences and drive business success.
